BARBARA MOSES, United States Magistrate Judge.

The Court has received and reviewed plaintiff's letters dated October 8 and 22, 2019 (Dkt. Nos. 175, 176), in which plaintiff, who is currently incarcerated at Attica Correctional Facility, states that he is in "grave danger" as a result of testimony he provided against "Rodney Calypso." Plaintiff's letters appear to arise out of a 2017 criminal case, in this District, against Rodiny Calypso, a former correctional officer who worked on Riker's Island. See U.S. v. Calypso, No. 1:17-cr-224-VEC-1 (S.D.N.Y.). The concerns plaintiff raises do not appear to relate to this civil action, which does not name former officer Calypso as a defendant.

Plaintiff's correspondence has been provided to the presiding District Judge in U.S. v. Calypso, as well as to the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York.

The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to plaintiff pro se.
